

DEFENSE SCHEDULING

BEFORE a Thesis/Dissertation Defense meeting can receive final approval in GradProg, it needs to be scheduled and held. Please schedule your defense with your committee and submit this signed form to the department Academic Program Manager at least five days prior to the desired defense date.

title

as submitted by

printed student name

BYU ID number | Net ID

Defense Meeting

date

time

location

Signatures denote that the committee member

1. Has read the thesis/dissertation for: the introduction, problem statement, hypothesis, review of literature, research design, suggested analysis, methods, and the overall worthiness of the project, and feels the student is ready to defend their thesis.
2. Agrees with the date of the defense and will be in attendance.

committee chair signature

printed name

date

committee member signature*

printed name

date

committee member signature*

printed name

date

committee member signature*

printed name

date

committee member signature*

printed name

date

Non-Exercise Sciences committee members please indicate an email address.*

Submit your approved manuscript to the graduate coordinator at least one week prior to the desired defense date.

Graduate Coordinator Approval

graduate coordinator signature

printed name

date